I am the living bread that came down for heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever! John 6:51

Jesus said that those who eat his flesh and drink his blood would have eternal life and would be one with him.

Food gives us energy and growth. It helps us to survive. It delights us with taste, texture and smell. In the Lord's prayer, we ask for food before we ask for forgiveness, because our daily bread is what keeps us going.

When we understand Jesus as the "Daily Bread" that feeds us and becomes part of us, we can come closer to understanding that we become part of Jesus as well. We share in his life and death, his baptism and his resurrection.

St. Augustine told Christians to "become what you receive", communion prepares us to "be Christ". As a community, the Church gathers around a table every week, even daily, to remember what real food is like. As Church, we gather in Thanksgiving because Jesus gave himself wholly to us and in that wholeness, we find our life.

On Saturday of our Cursillo weekend, we hear the rollo on the Sacraments, most of us learn a new appreciation of the Sacrament of Eucharist. How many times at the Sunday closing, have we heard from the new fourth dayers witness that appreciation? How truly blessed we are for the Cursillo priest that show us the way and share with us the true meaning of "the Eucharist" We have an awesome God!!

We had a very successful Regional meeting in Faribault, thanks to Barry Stewart, Dan Betlock and the three Ultreyas, Restful Waters, Southwest Servants and Minnesota Valley with over 100 attendees. We had great witnesses at the Regional Ultreya, from two of our new 4th dayers from the Spanish community and the other from our Minn. Valley Ultreya Rep. AND our own Marilyn Presseller will be taking over Barry's duties after the fall regional.

As we've said the Vietnamese will be having their workshop June 21st - June 23 and they have invited us to join them at their "Fiesta" on Saturday the 22nd at 9:30 pm, at Home of the Good Shepherd in Shoreview (near No. Oaks). We also hope to see you at the Waldorf's on the afternoon of 23rd for the picnic. Bishop Pates will be celebrating Mass at 4pm with potluck to follow.

Weekends 241 and 242 are now behind us, but, not forgotten. As usual, the witnesses were a true indication of why Cursillo is so meaningful to all of us, as it reminds us that we can change our lives and walk down a different path, on a new journey. Bishop Pates presided at the women's closing at which time we introduced the Coordinators for 243 and 244 as Jim Dircks and Mary Petros

We pray for you, please pray for us,

Gene & Jean

Lost and not yet found !

Angie Rogers called in and said that Cursillo is missing a couple of items.

1. One (1) chalice including a cover with a small cross
2. One (1) Pix with a red cross

These were not available for the Spanish weekend (weekend #239). Therefore it is believed that these items were lost on weekend #238 or earlier. They may have been left at St. Joseph's in Lino Lakes or St. Peter's in North St. Paul. If you have seen these items or if you remember seeing them last fall, please contact Angie at 952.934.1671.

Mark 9:17-29

Then one of the crowd answered and said, "Teacher, I brought You my son, who has a mute spirit. And wherever it seizes him, it throws him down; he foams at the mouth, gnashes his teeth, and becomes rigid. So I spoke to your disciples, that they should cast it out, but they could not."

He answered him and said, "O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I bear with you? Bring him to Me." Then they brought him to Jesus. And when he saw Jesus, immediately the spirit convulsed him, and he fell on the ground and wallowed, foaming at the mouth. So he asked his father, "How long has this been happening to him?" And he said, "From childhood. And often he has thrown him both into the fire and into the water to destroy him. But if you can do anything, have compassion on us and help us."

Jesus said to him, "If you can believe, all things are possible to him who believes." Immediately the father of the child cried out and said with tears, "Lord, I believe; help my unbelief!"

When Jesus saw that the people came running together, He rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it: "Deaf and dumb spirit, I command you, come out of him and enter him no more!" Then the spirit cried out, convulsed him greatly, and came out of him. And he became as one dead, so that many said, "He is dead." But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up, and he arose.

And when He had come into the house, His disciples asked Him privately, "Why could we not cast it out?" So He said to them, "This kind can come out by nothing but prayer and fasting."

5th Dayer

"Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light."

Look for Jesus in the Mirror

In a recent Lenten mission, our missionary, Father Bill Mason, OMI, focused on the question: where do we see Jesus in our lives?

Some people, he said, visit with Jesus in prayer and solitude, some people see Jesus in the eyes of a child or in the aged, yet others see Jesus in nature or in their friends and neighbors.

Father Bill reminded us that we should always strive to be Christ to one another, Jesus should be within us, shining like a beacon for all to see. So at your next small group, when you are struggling for the Christ presence in your life, look for Jesus within and ask yourself, Have I seen Jesus in the mirror?
