LAY DIRECTORS' LINK

Jesus said to them, "Unbind him and let him go." John 11:44.

These words Jesus spoke when He raised Lazarus from the dead. At our National Cursillo Encounter in Seattle, Washington, Bishop Charles Grahmann from the Diocese of Dallas read this verse and relayed it to the work of Cursillo. We are in the process of unbinding the men and women on Cursillo weekends and letting them go. This starts on Thursday evening. Those in the Rollo room are asked to surrender their schedules by giving up their watches. Not to worry, time they are told will be kept by the proctor.

Time: a gift, a treasure which each of us have equal amounts, yet it has many robbers. The preference sheet gives us an opportunity to access how and where we spend our time. The unbinding continues as cell phones and computers are at rest, during this weekend encounter with Jesus Christ.

The wrappings continue to come off as an evening of silence encourages solace in the depth of our inner being. Our spirit becoming one with God. This quiet culminates with mass on Friday morning where we enter in communion with others, the sharing of Christ's love. It continues as the Rollos are presented. Each design to uncover and reveal the wonders of God's love for us in His Son, Jesus the Christ. Then Sunday arrives, this is the time to let them go. Go and make "disciples of all nations", to bring the gospel message of salvation through Christ to their environments.

The Cursillo method of grouping and ultreya equips us with tools needed to unbind others, family members, neighbors, people we work with or anyone else that may cross our path.

Unbinding is a process by which we become more Christ-like in our lives. John the Baptist said, "He [Jesus] must increase, but I must decrease." John 3:30. We don't surrender our identity, we are called to reflect Christ in who we are. Thank you for your prayers for our brothers and sisters in the Spanish community who held their weekends in August. Please continue to pray for the men's [Sept. 16-19] and women's [Sept. 23-26] weekends. Let's see great numbers at the Palanca masses at 9:30 a.m. on Friday and Saturday of the weekends, which will be held at St Joseph's Church in Lino Lakes.

May the Lord continue to unbind the wrappings which prevent us from doing His will.

Saved by Grace,
Denny and Sharie Newinski
